

HOW IS CLIMATE CHANGE IMPACTING OUR BERKSHIRE LAKES AND PONDS?

The program is an overview of how climate change is affecting our lakes and ponds, other water resource areas and surrounding environment of trees and plants, and all the wildlife that depend on them for their survival.

Panelists

Bruce Winn – Berkshire Community College
Professor of Environmental Life Sciences

Emily Stockman – Stockman Associates
Owner and Senior Scientist

Joe Onorato – Water & Wetland owner
Aquatic Specialist

Program Sponsor: Becket Conservation Commission and Becket Lakes & Ponds Council

Date: Wednesday, April 3, 2024, 2:30 – 4:30 p.m.

Location: Becket Town Hall, 557 Main Street, Community Room – downstairs

Registration is required for this free program

Call Dave Johnson, Becket Conservation Chair: 978-424-5752

or

email: CLIMATE PROGRAM or AIAINCDAJ@GMAIL.COM

Refreshments will be provided. Zoom link will be posted on the BCC Webpage.

COME LEARN – COME SHARE

Too Much Water

Just Right

Too Little Water

???